

OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH & SAFETY TECHNICIANS

Review, evaluate, and analyze work environments. Design programs and procedures to control, eliminate, and prevent disease or injury caused by chemical, physical, and biological agents or ergonomic factors.

EDUCATION & SKILLS

- Associate's or Bachelor's degree
- Attention to detail
- Critical thinking
- Communication
- Reasoning

GENERAL TASKS

- Identify and suppress hazards
- Train and teach hazard prevention
- Inspect equipment, structures or material
- Monitor safety of processes, materials and surroundings

LEVEL UP

Centier BANK

Free Financial Education

Providing you with helpful materials, guidance and knowledge designed to meet your unique financial needs.

Wherever you may be on your financial journey, we're here to help.

Start Learning Today

e-Courses Worksheets Tips & Resources

Centier to You
An Online Financial Education Series

Member FDIC

$49K
Average Salary
($23.32/hour)

6%
Increase in Jobs
by 2030

GREATERNILES
Chamber of Commerce

Premier Partner

MICHIGAN WORKS!
Berrien • Cass • Van Buren